PURPOSE OF THE CAMP

The Baylor University School of Music annual Senior High Instrumental Camp offers one week of intense training in all facets of wind and string playing. Camp students are under the artistic guidance of the outstanding Baylor instrumental and ensemble faculty. Since its inception, the Baylor Instrumental Music Camp has won acclaim for the quality of performance achieved within one week of rehearsals. The close relationship between students and faculty provides significant musical growth demonstrated in the performance of The Grand Concert.

DAILY SCHEDULE

Students will be involved in large ensemble rehearsals, chamber music sessions, and master class lessons on their instrument. Students are assigned to a chamber group that will best fit their playing experience and strengths. Master class lessons are taught by the Baylor faculty and camp staff giving each student the opportunity to receive personal attention. Possible recreational activities include swimming, basketball, volleyball, soccer, softball, and evening socials. Students will be under careful supervision by camp counselors during all activities.
